GENEALOGY

OF THE

DENNISON FAMILY.

FROM GEORGE DENNISON, 1725.

[From Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England.]

WILLIAM DENISON married Margaret ———, came probably with the apostle Eliot in 1631 to settle in Roxbury, where his name stands third on the list of church members, was enrolled as a freeman on the 3d of July, 1632, elected a Deputy to the General Court in 1635, and died 25th January, 1654. His wife, whose maiden name is not now known, died 3d February, 1646. The names of their children, who came over with them, were Daniel, Edward and George.

GEORGE, son of William, born in England about 1620, married, in May, 1640, Bridget Thomson, and had two daughters; Sarah, bapt. 20th March, 1642, and Hannah, bapt. 21st May, 1643, (born the day before). His wife, Bridget, died in August, 1643, and he went to England, where he served in the Parliament's army, and, while there, he took for a second wife, Ann, daughter of John Borrodell or Borrowdale, who gave her a house in Cork, Ireland. He came back to Roxbury, and there had John, born 14th June, 1646; Ann, born 20th May, 1649. Soon after he removed to the Pequot country, now called New London, Connecticut, and there had George, born 1652, William, born 1655, Borrodell, born 1657, Margaret, born 1660, and Mary, born 1670, who died 1671. He was a captain and much distinguished in the war with King Philip. He died 23d Oct., 1694, at Hartford, and in his will of 20th Nov., 1693, names his children, John, George, William, and daughters Sarah, wife of Thomas Stanton, Hannah, wife of Joseph Sexton, Ann, wife of Gershom Parker, Margaret Brown, and Borrodell, wife of Samuel Stanton. His widow died 26th Sept., 1712, aged 97, according to the gravestone.

GEORGE, son of George and grandson of William, was of Stonington or Westerly, and married Mary (or Mercy), daughter of John Gorham, of Barnstable, and had Edward and Joseph, who were both baptized 1683, Mercy, bapt. 1685, Samuel, 1686, Elizabeth, 1690, Desire, 1693, Thankful, 1695, and George, 1699.

GEORGE, born 1699.

It is not improbable that George Dennison, the first of the name that settled on Cape Ann, is the same George last mentioned in the foregoing record, notwithstanding the slight difference in the spelling of the name. The inscription on his headstone in the old Annisquam Burying Ground is, "Died March 14, 1747-8, aged 48 years;" this establishes his birth in 1699. Otherwise, the earliest recorded knowledge we have of him is his marriage to Abigail Haraden, at Gloucester, Jan. 14, 1725. It is a little remarkable that although we have several documents of his own, including his will, and of his immediate descendants, none of them make any allusion to his family, or give any clue by which his own descent can be traced. There is a legend concerning him before his appearance in Gloucester, familiar to many of his descendants, which, true or not, makes no mention of his family, and if true, does not make his connection with the Connecticut family impossible nor very improbable. Let us hope that with a little more research by some of his descendants, records may be found to establish with more certainty his connection with the Connecticut branch, or to give some account of his ancestry, from whatever direction it may come.

GIFT OF GEORGE DENNISON.

Whereas, I the subscriber, George Dennison, of Gloucester, in the County of Essex, have thought fit, with the consent and desire of my wife, in the settlement of my estate before my death to give freely out of my personal estate to my children, as follows, viz. :

To my son George, one-half my Schooner Abigail, as she now lays at Lieutenant Young's wharf, burthen about 50 tons, and three hundred pounds money, old tenor. To Abner, Isaac and David, the other half of my Schooner Abigail, equally to and between them, and nine hundred pounds old tenor, besides three hundred pounds to Abner and Isaac to help repair the house I have given them. To Jonathan, £400 old tenor; to Abigail, £600; to Susanna, £600.

This is to certify that Abigail, my wife, is equally concerned with me in the disposal of what I have given as above, and that it was according to her free will, and at her request and desire that I so did, and this which my wife and I have thus agreed to give to our children, in our lifetime, being thus given and disposed of, as not to be accounted after my decease as any part of my personal estate; because I have made a free gift, tender and surrender of it to my children as above. As witness our hands this 30th day of January, 1747-8.

N. B.—That what remains of my personal estate not disposed of at my decease, we both agree likewise to give it to our four oldest sons, George, Abner, Isaac and David:
